

Written Round Rule - Cell phones and other electronic devices:

Coaches will collect electronic devices prior to the written round and may redistribute after the written round. If an electronic device is seen or heard during the written round, the student with the device will be disqualified from the competition for the day.

Oral Round Rule - Cell phones and other electronic devices:

If cell phones or other electronic devices are seen or heard during competition rounds, the student violating the policy will be disqualified for the remainder of the round. Additionally, the team will forfeit any points they have earned in that round up to that point. The team may continue and the student may rejoin the team for successive rounds.
